

Nancy Healey

Nancy Healey is the mother of two students at St. Bonaventure's College, Brendan Prowse (Grade 6) and Nicholas Prowse (Grade 1). She has volunteered at St. Bonaventure's for the past 5 years primarily serving on the Fundraising committee and most recently on the Management Council. She has a strong motivation to ensure tuition remains affordable and that the school is accessible to students of families from all income levels.

Nancy is the Chief Executive Officer of the St. John's Board of Trade, where she works with a team of staff and numerous volunteers to advance the business community in the province. Prior to joining the Board of Trade, Nancy was the Executive Director of the tourism industry association. She also worked briefly at the provincial government in the department of education, as a communications director and has worked as an alumni affairs officer at Memorial University. Nancy's serves on two committees of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce and is a Board member on the Chamber Executives of Canada. She is Vice-Chair of the Finance Committee at Corpus Christi Parish on Waterford Bridge Road.

Nancy is married to Jim Prowse.
