NANCY HEALEY

Nancy Healey is the mother of two students at St. Bonaventure's College, Brendan Prowse (Grade 9) and Nicholas Prowse (Grade 4). She has volunteered at St. Bonaventure's for the past 8 years on the Board of Governors and fundraising committee. She has a strong motivation to ensure tuition remains affordable and that the school is accessible to students of families from all income levels.

Nancy Healey is the Chief Executive Officer of the St, John's Board of Trade a position she has held for the past 11 years. In this capacity Nancy works with a dedicated group of staff and volunteers to help business succeed. The Board is known for its advocacy work at the municipal, provincial and federal level. As well, as for hosting stellar events like the Business Excellence Awards, the Business Outlook Conference and Trade Show. Prior to returning to the Board in 2008, Nancy was the Executive Director of the Tourism Industry Association. As well, she has worked as a government relations and public relations consultant.

Nancy recently completed the Director's Education Program from the Rotman School of Business and has achieved the designation of ICD.D. Nancy was recently awarded the Chamber Executive of the Year from her peers in the Chamber of Commerce movement. Nancy is the Chair of the Board of St. Bonaventure's College, a private catholic school in the Jesuit Tradition. She is an Aide de Camp to Her Honour Lieutenant Governor Judy Foote. She serves on the Board of Directors of the Newfoundland and Labrador Credit Union and is a Member of the Newfoundland and Labrador Chapter of the Canadian Forces Liaison Council, a member of the International Women's Forum and a Past President of the Chamber of Commerce Executives of Canada and a past Director of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce.

Nancy is an avid hockey fan and lives in hopes of her team (the Toronto Maple Leafs) winning the Stanley Cup once again in her lifetime. In addition, she plays hockey every Friday night and has done so for the past 20 years.