

ROB BLACKIE

Rob Blackie is a graduate of Columbia University with an MFA in film, as well as a Bachelor of Laws and a Bachelor of Commerce (Co-op) from Dalhousie University. Born and raised in Gander, Rob is a devoted family man who is active in the community.

Rob currently sits on over 20 boards of directors, including Take The Shot Productions Inc. (a film and television production company), The Green Room Inc. (a real estate company), and Business & Arts Newfoundland and Labrador (a not for profit).

Rob is the co-creator of the Netflix/Discovery Canada hit show Frontier and serves as an EP and writer for the show. In recent years, Rob served as producer, writer and director for the CBC show Republic of Doyle, as well as producer of the feature length documentaries Boy on Bridge and Shaun Majumder, Every Word is Absolutely True, as well as the W Network series “Majumder Manor”.

His career in the film and television industry began in 2000 as a Production Supervisor with Halifax-based production company IMX Communications Inc. In 2004, he joined Granada America New York, post-producing and supervising various hit shows, including A&E’s “The First 48” and “Dallas SWAT”.

Rob has one daughter in Grade 2 at St. Bon’s, and a son who begins kindergarten in September 2019, and a daughter who will begin kindergarten in 2022.